

Oh I wondered,
Why,
The sadness in my eyes..
There's been so many days,
The world looked dull and grey..

But I grew fonder,
To try,
And save myself a smile,
To take the opportunity,
To rock this world again..

(chorus1)

Out there in the sunshine in my street,
I felt my heart suddenly missed a beat,
So sensual you looked that day,
You'd be nice to meet..

And everywhere,
I went,
I took that day with me,
Wondering why you'd feel for me,
Wondering what could be,

(chorus2)

But then you took a dive into my life,
And I drowned myself deep in your eyes,
Whispering all this sweetness 'bout me,
Baby, stay with me..

(chorus3)

I've heard you make a plan inside your head,
And I'm ready to go wherever you're headed,
Please don't ever lose that smile, pretty,
Baby, go with me..

Out there in the sunshine in my street,
I felt my heart suddenly missed a beat,
So sensual you looked that day,
Baby you're my treat..
